We are grateful to all of those participating in tonight's service, and everyone who has come to share in this evening's celebration.

The Moravian Love Feast is an annual tradition here at Central and one which has grown and developed over the years. We gather this evening as members of the family of God, and together we seek God's blessing for our community and for our world.

Order of Worship

Christmas Chimes

Greeting

Band "Good Christian Friends, Rejoice"

Call to Worship

Leader: "Let us love one another; for love comes from God."

People: "Everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God."

Leader: "This is love, not that we loved God, but that God loved us and sent His Son as an atoning sacrifice for our sins."

People: "Since God so loved us, we also ought to love one another."

Leader: "No one has ever seen God."

People: "If we love one another God lives in us and His love is made complete in us."

All: "Let Us Worship!"

This familiar carol was first published as a poem in the Christmas Eve 1816 issue of a newspaper the author edited in Sheffield, England. The tune name celebrates the location of a prominent Presbyterian Church in London, sometimes called the "Presbyterian cathedral."
